

AVI Global Trust plc
Nomination Committee – Terms of Reference

Background

These terms of reference have been produced in accordance with the relevant Principles of the AIC Code of Corporate Governance published in February 2019. The Financial Reporting Council has confirmed that AIC Member companies which report against the AIC Code of Corporate Governance and who follow the AIC's Corporate Governance Guide for Investment Companies will be meeting their obligations in relation to its UK Corporate Governance Code and Listing Rule 9.8.6.

Composition of the Committee

The Committee shall be comprised of all of the Directors of the Board who are independent of the Investment Manager. All members of the Committee are entitled to vote on candidates for the appointment of new Directors, subject to there being no conflicts of interest.

The Chairman of the Board shall act as the Committee Chairman but shall not chair meetings of the Committee when it is dealing with the appointment of a successor to the Chairman of the Board.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least once each year to consider and make its recommendations to the Board regarding the re-election of Directors and the statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report. The Committee may meet at such other times as the Chairman of the Committee shall require.

A quorum at a Committee meeting shall be two members including the Chairman of the Committee, or the Chairman's nominated delegate.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, date and time together with an agenda of items to be discussed and supporting papers, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee not less than three working days prior to the date of the meeting.

The minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be circulated to all members of the Committee. Any Director, upon request to the Secretary, may obtain copies of the Committee's agenda and minutes provided that there are no conflicts of interest.

The Chairman of the Committee will report to the Board on the Committee's decisions and recommendations and how it has discharged its responsibilities.

Resources

The Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to undertake its duties.

The Company Secretary shall act as Secretary to the Committee.

Authority

The Committee is authorised to:

- seek any information that it reasonably requires from a representative of any third-party service provider in order to perform its duties;
- obtain at the Company's expense outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference;
- have timely and unrestricted access to relevant documents relating to the affairs of the Company.

Duties and Responsibilities

Board Structure

The Committee shall:

- review regularly the structure, size and composition of the Board, including the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity of the Directors.
- make recommendations to the Board on:
  - a) succession planning and the resultant changes to the composition of the Board;
  - b) job specifications and the terms of appointment for Directors;
  - c) changes to the chairmanship and membership of the Company's committees;
  - d) maintaining a balance of skills, experience, length of service and knowledge of the Company, when considering new appointments.
- be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval by the Board, candidates to fill Board vacancies and fulfil succession plans. In identifying suitable candidates, the Committee shall use the services of external advisers to facilitate the search if considered necessary and appropriate;
- ensure that both appointments and succession plans are based on merit and objective criteria and, within this context, should promote diversity of gender, social and ethnic backgrounds, cognitive and personal strengths;

- ensure that the Board and its Committees have a combination of skills, experience and knowledge. Consideration should be given to the length of service of the Board as a whole and membership regularly refreshed;
- keep under review the leadership needs of the Company, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the Company to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- review annually the time required from Directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the Directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties;
- ensure that, on appointment to the Board, Directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board meetings;
- consider the re-appointment of any Director at the conclusion of his or her specified term of office, having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;
- consider any recommendation to the Board concerning the re-election of any Director, having due regard to his or her performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;
- ensure that the Company complies with the AIC Code's requirement that all Directors be subject to annual re-election by shareholders;
- consider any matters relating to the continuation in office of any Director at any time, including the suspension or termination of service of a Director subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract, if any;
- regularly review the Company's Diversity Policy;
- report formally to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting, making recommendations to the Board as deemed appropriate on any area within its remit;

The Committee shall determine the policy on the tenure of the Chair, to be disclosed in the Annual Report. A clear rationale for the expected tenure should be provided, and the policy should explain how this is consistent with the need for regular refreshment and diversity.

Board Committees

The Committee shall ensure that similar considerations are applied to other Committees of the Board as are applied to the Board itself to ensure that membership is refreshed and that undue reliance is not placed on particular individuals.

Directors' independence

The Committee shall:

- regularly review the independence of the Directors and report annually to the Board on its evaluation of each Director's independence;
- make recommendations to the Board on the reasons for determining that a Director is to be regarded as independent and, when relevant, notwithstanding that the Director has served for more than nine years from the date of their first election; and
- make recommendations to the Board on the reasons for determining that a Director is to be regarded as independent notwithstanding the existence of any relationships or circumstances which may appear relevant to the Board's deliberations.

Board evaluation

The Committee shall undertake a formal evaluation of each Director's performance, as well as the performance and function of the Board as a whole and the Board Committees, on an annual basis, taking into account the balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the Company in the Board as well as the Board's diversity, how the Board works together as a unit and any other functions relevant to its effectiveness. The review shall be based on open discussion to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the Board and all of its Committees.

The Committee Chairman shall review with each of the Directors his or her individual performance, contribution and commitment to the Company and any requirement for further development of his or her skills.

The Committee shall undertake a rigorous review of a Director who has served two or more terms of three years and who is seeking re-election for a further term of three years.

The Senior Independent Director shall take the lead in the annual evaluation of the performance of the Chairman of the Board to ascertain that the Chairman has no relationships that may create a conflict of interest between the Chairman's interest and those of shareholders and that other significant commitments will not impinge on the Chairman's duties to the Board.

The Senior Independent Director shall discuss with the other Directors the performance of the Chairman of the Board following which the Senior Independent Director shall meet with the Chairman to discuss performance.

The Committee will make formal recommendations to the Board following the evaluation process including recommendations on the election and re-election of Directors.

The Committee shall ensure that the Board evaluation is externally facilitated at least every three years.

Director training and induction

The Committee, together with the Company Secretary, shall establish an induction programme for new Directors about the Company, its managers, their legal responsibilities and the investment company sector as deemed necessary, together with a process for identifying professional development needs and training for existing Directors.

The Chairman of the Board shall regularly review and agree with each Director their training and development needs.

Approved by the Board on 7 November 2019
